(2) I think the time for wholesale free distribution of these Art Calendars has arrived. The materials, paper ink, & cardboard, have gone up enormously in price & I do not think it is either necessary or desirable to keep up the practice. The present offers a suitable opportunity to discontinue it and it should not be missed, in my opinion. Copies should however continue to be printed for distribution to the Palace, the Residency, (also Commissioners & officers) first officers in receipt of a Salary of Rs 500/- & upwards & all officers except High Schools & other Public Institutions. Free supply to the non official Public, whether free as hitherto or on cost, should it seems to me be discontinued. I should now like a list put up showing how many copies will require to be struck for distribution as above indicated and what it will cost to print & get them read.
